

SEATING PLAN

To see actual seat views, visit roh.org.uk, choose your production, performance date and seating area, and then click on the available seats to see their views. Our current theatre was built in 1858, so please be aware that there are sightline, surtitles and legroom restrictions. See opposite.

For acoustic reasons it has become necessary to remove the seats on both sides of the Stalls Circle closest to the stage (shown above in grey).

Buying your tickets

Please note that apart from 23 Friday Rush tickets in the Amphitheatre (see below), all performances are only available as part of a complete cycle.

Did you know about our Friday Rush tickets?

Opening each Friday at 1pm, Friday Rush offers the chance to buy up to two tickets for almost all performances on our main stage in the following week, including any sold-out performances that fall within the week on sale. For Der Ring des Nibelungen there are 23 Friday Rush seats - in the Amphitheatre (rear). For further information, please visit our dedicated Friday Rush page, roh.org.uk/fridayrush

What if your plans change?

You can only exchange one entire Ring cycle for an alternative Ring cycle. If you need to exchange tickets, please contact the Box Office at least three working days before the first performance, otherwise we can only offer to re-sell the Ring cycle ticket, and unfortunately we cannot guarantee this. Exchanges are subject to availability and the usual Box Office conditions apply.

Access

We welcome wheelchair users in all our performance spaces. Detailed seating plans showing wheelchair spaces are available upon request. Assisted Hearing Facility is also available, except in the Clore. For information on the Royal Opera House Access Membership and to request a registration form, please contact the Box Office or visit roh.org.uk/access

Some of our seats have restricted views

Photo previews of all main stage seats and standing positions are available online when buying your ticket. For details about restricted views please call the Box Office.

Some of our auditorium stairs are steep.

The Amphitheatre is accessed via steep, narrow wooden stairs and is not recommended for those who suffer from vertigo.

* Boxes are only sold as four seats
