

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE

240 REAL CANDLES AT A COST OF £270
WERE PURCHASED FOR THE REHEARSALS
AND PERFORMANCES OF TRISTAN UND ISOLDE.

The Wagner Appeal enables The Royal Opera to keep Wagner's legacy alive for future generations through inspiring productions, created and performed by the world's leading artists. Your support underpins every aspect of our performances, from language coaching through to lighting the stage. For example, a gift of £433 could allow the Music Library to purchase the new Schott Urtext edition vocal scores for all Wagner's operas. This will help music staff prepare singers for roles such as Tristan, the Dutchman and Tannhäuser, and give conductors the best rehearsal and performance experience.

To make a donation, please complete and return the form, visit www.roh.org.uk/wagner or phone Sacha Glasgow-Smith on +44 (0)20 7212 9510.

'Singing Isolde at the Royal Opera House is very special experience for me. Here you have enough time for new productions to take shape, but even for a revival we have enough time to develop the production musically and artistically since the last time it was performed. When the time for performances has arrived, I can enjoy singing for this wonderfully demanding and knowledgeable audience in an opera house where there is still room for details of the interpretation in every sense. I can literally feel the audience's emotional engagement and concentration in my singing-storytelling!'
