FAMILY SUNDAY

SUNDAY 26 NOVEMBER 2023

1.30 – 4pm

CALLING ALL HEROES!

Welcome to our Heroes & Villains Family Sunday

Every show needs a hero and a villain; black swan vs white swan, Hansel and Gretel vs the Wicked witch, Cinderella vs her nasty stepsisters... so many dastardly duos to choose from. Which side will you pick?

Will you defeat the Queen of the Night and her giant snake using the power of song in Snake Attack? Or perhaps you would rather fight in hand-to-hand combat? Join RICH, LOCKHART and PAM, as they show you how to make heroes fly and villains fall in this jaw breaking stage fight demonstration.

Dance your way to victory and defeat the Queen of Hearts with Everybody Dance or practice your pirouettes at the ballet barre. Thick and Tight bring a whole new take to the theme of good vs evil in a newly commissioned dance performance performed in the Clore Studio.

Get in the spooky spirit with ABIGAIL KELLY and her music bag of witchy hits. Resident sing-along expert AGA will take you on a musical journey to defeat your foes.

Don't forget to shake the blues away and get happy with BIM and BILLY's band at our end of day dance party!

Your adventure begins now!

*Family Sundays can be quite noisy, ear defenders can be requested for you or your little person. Just ask a member of staff in a black t-shirt.

GOOD TOES, NAUGHTY TOES

Created by Family Sunday regulars Thick & Tight, Good Toes, Naughty Toes explores what good and bad can mean to both children and adults through the lens of ballet training. A single dancer is caught in light, questioning their understanding of right and wrong, acceptance and rejection, good and bad and true and false. This brand-new work is set to a soundtrack of two Royal Ballet dancers discussing these subjects, an insight into their past and present as people and artists.
